C.R.S Reference

Matters specific in the Open Meetings Law that may be discussed in executive session are as follows:

- C.R.S. § 24-6-402(4)(a): The purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer, or sale of any real, personal, or other property interest; except that no executive session shall be held for the purpose of concealing the fact that a member of the board has a personal interest in such purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer, or sale.
- C.R.S.§ 24-6-402(4)(b): Conferences with the board's attorney for the purposes of receiving legal advice on specific legal questions. Mere presence or participation of an attorney at an executive session of the board is not sufficient to satisfy this requirement.
- C.R.S. §24-6-402(4)(c): Matters required to be kept confidential be federal or state law or rules and regulations. The board shall announce the specific citation of the statutes or rules that are the basis for such confidentiality before holding the executive session.
- C.R.S.§ 24-6-402(4)(d): Specialized details of security arrangements or investigations.
- C.R.S. §24-6-402(4)(e): Determining positions relative to matters that may be subject to negotiations; developing strategy for negotiations; and instructing negotiations.
- C.R.S. §24-6-402(4)(f)(I): Personnel matters, except if the employee who is the subject of the session has requested an open meeting.
- C.R.S. §24-6-402(4)(f)(II): (1) "Personnel matters" do not include discussions concerning any member of the board, any elected official, or the appointment of a person to fill the office of a board member or an elected official, or to discussion of matters personal to particular employees.
