Nominee QualificationsTell us why your nominee should serve on Ben Franklin Academy's Board of Directors.

My daughter is in Mrs. North's first-grade class, so I certainly have a vested interest in the success of Ben Franklin Academy. What role do you see the nominee playing on Ben Franklin Academy's Board of Directors?

I see myself playing a role in helping to build out long term strategy for BFA while also utilizing my skills in problem-solving and decision-making analysis to help guide choices on currently pressing issues. I'm a visionary at heart, so I'd love to be able to help further the vision of BFA and stimulate creativity in what the school could be in the future while adhering to the core principles and values it is established on.

What strengths/experience do they bring to the Board?

I bring a broad spectrum of experience to the Board, from being a professional musician to now being an IT professional. My days are spent driving global teams to discover root causes for major incidents and then create permanent corrective actions so that those incidents do not occur again. I also have training in lean and agile methodologies so in this age of "doing more with less" I can help implement some best practices to maximize the board's time as well as that of administrators and teachers.

Is the nominee willing to commit to attend board meetings each month and events each year, in addition to spending some time on committee work?

Yes.

Please share anything else you want us to know about the nominee.

I am fully committed to the mission and charter of BFA. I love hanging around kids and watching my own daughter grow and mature during her short time at BFA has been amazing to experience. I do worry about the future my daughter is growing up into, but am cautiously optimistic that she will thrive, mainly due to her mom's efforts early on and the well-rounded and well-grounded education she is receiving at Ben Franklin. And if serving on the Board of Directors ensures that continues to happen, then I humbly submit my nomination.
